CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:22-0769

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Plaintiff Michael G. Peters is incarcerated in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice–Correctional Institutions Division (TDCJ). Peters proceeds pro se and seeks leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Having reviewed the pleadings, the plaintiff’s litigation history, and all matters of record, the Court DISMISSES this case for the reasons explained below.

Under the “three strikes” rule found in the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA), a prisoner is not allowed to bring a civil action in forma pauperis in federal court if, while incarcerated, three or more of his civil actions or appeals were dismissed as frivolous, malicious or for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless he is under “imminent danger of serious physical injury.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Once a prisoner has accumulated three qualifying dismissals or strikes for purposes of § 1915(g), he may not proceed without prepayment of the filing fee unless he fits within the imminent-danger exception at the time his complaint is filed. See Brown v. Megg, 857 F.3d 287, 290 (5th Cir. 2017); Banos v. O'Guin, 144 F.3d 883, 885 (5th Cir. 1998). The threat of imminent danger must be “real and proximate” and allegations regarding past harms do not suffice. Ciarpaglini v. Saini, 352 F.3d 328, 330 (7th Cir. 2003); see Abdul-Akbar v. McKelvie, 239 F.3d 307, 315 (3d Cir. 2001) (en banc).

Peters has filed numerous previous lawsuits, including at least three civil actions that have been dismissed as frivolous or for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. See Peters v. United States, Civil Action No. 4:22-0617 (S. D. Tex. Mar.9, 2022) (listing nine strikes and past monetary sanctions); Peters v. Atlas, Civil Action No. 4:22-0080 (S.D. Tex. Jan. 13, 2022) (collecting over 20 cases filed by Peters in the last year); Peters v. State of Texas, Civil Action No. 4:17-2270 (S. D. Tex. July 27, 2017) (collecting Peters’ past strikes, dismissing case, and issuing sanctions warning). Peters therefore may not proceed in forma pauperis absent a showing that he is under imminent danger of serious physical injury. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g); Banos, 144 F.3d at 885.

In this case, Peters brings civil-rights claims against Governor Greg Abbott for false imprisonment, conspiracy, taking bribes, organized crime, and fraud. He states that Abbott colluded with former governor Rick Perry and Texas corporations in 2012, resulting in lies in his son’s medical records at Texas Children’s Hospital. He seeks $300 million in damages (Dkt. 1).

Peters’ allegations in his complaint are insufficient to show imminent danger of serious physical injury for purposes of § 1915(g). See Brown, 857 F.3d at 290; Ciarpaglini, 352 F.3d at 330. Additionally, as courts dismissing Peters’ past lawsuits have held, the fact that Peters lists his minor son as a second plaintiff in this case does not prevent dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). See, e.g., Peters v. Grant, Civil Action No. 4:22-0253 (S.D. Tex. Jan. 26, 2022); Peters v. Atlas, Civil Action No. 4:22-0080 (S.D. Tex. Jan. 13, 2022). Because Peters is not otherwise eligible to proceed in forma pauperis, the Court will dismiss the complaint without prejudice as barred by § 1915(g).

Based on the foregoing, the Court ORDERS as follows:

1. Peters' motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (Dkt. 2) is DENIED.
2. Peters' complaint (Dkt. 1) is DISMISSED without prejudice pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).
3. All other pending motions, if any, are DENIED as moot.
4. The Clerk is INSTRUCTED to provide a copy of this Order to the plaintiff and to the Manager of the Three-Strikes List for the Southern District of Texas at Three\_Strikes@txs.uscourts.gov.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on March 24, 2022.
